

sinclair's use of the public airwaves to spread lies just before an election, and too late for the lied about candidate to respond is truly unethical. It is bad enough on a local level when the candidate must scramble to clear things up, but on the national level, with the airwaves supposedly being controlled by the FCC, is beyond the pale.

Please stop them now. Thank you.